BANGALORE.

21st March 1918

My dear Lord Bishop,

I have written to Dr Campbell conveying my sentiments regarding the increase of salary ordered by your Lordship. I have been against the proposal ever since it was suggested 18 months ago and I remain of that opinion.

All the same, I feel I should write and humbly assure your Lordship of my sincere & heartfelt gratitude for the kindly feelings behind the order.

I ever am,

Your Lordship's devoted & humble servant,

M. Visvesvaraya

My dear Sir Visvesvaraya,

Your letter of the 30th March for which many thanks, only reached me. I have not been able to make up mind yet as to what, if any, further contribution should be paid by the British Government for purposes of the war. There is, as you say, no particular hurry about it. I am considering the matter & shall let you know what strikes me as the best course to adopt under the circumstances. I am having the enclosure by your letter returned by an separately
